

A Family of Brands Connecting the Global Weighing, Dimensioning &
Process Control Communities

A Legacy of Weighing

Rice Lake Weighing Systems is a family-owned company established in 1946 as a scale service business in Rice Lake, Wisconsin, USA.

Since then, the company has grown to become an international manufacturer and supplier of measurement and process control equipment.

Through all of our growth and changes, the same founding philosophy has held true: Take care of the customer and the rest of the business will take care of itself.

Through three generations of family ownership, Rice Lake's principles of quality and customer service remain unchanged.

“Take care of the customer and the rest of the business will take care of itself.”

- Donald B. Johnson

Since 1846, Dini Argeo has formed a reputation for excellence in the weighing industry. Now a member of the Rice Lake family of brands, Dini Argeo offers solutions ranging from mobile weighing systems to scales for retail and industrial use, as well as software for industrial automation and systems integration.

The Unified Brands of Rice Lake and Dini Argeo

In 2016, Rice Lake Weighing Systems acquired Dini Argeo, Italian manufacturer and distributor of weighing solutions since 1846. Today, Modena, Italy, serves as Rice Lake's European manufacturing location. The Rice Lake family of brands, with its collective product offering and distribution, allows for quality weighing solutions and customer service to be available around the world.

Joining the Rice Lake family of brands with the Dini Argeo acquisition are HELMAC, CIBE and SELENE; retail, software, metrology and electronic engineering companies, respectively.
